Public and social practice artist Van C. Tran is the Spring 2014 Artist-in-Residence at The John Spoor Broome Library, CSU Channel Islands. Throughout the month of April, her site-specific multimedia installation will seek out words of wisdom from members of the CI campus community.

To learn more and participate, scan any of the QR codes above or go to the following website:

http://campuswisdom.wordpress.com/csu-channel-islands/

This project is curated by CI Art program faculty Julianne P. Gavino with contributions made by students enrolled in ART 332 Multicultural Art Movements. Special thanks to Arts & Sciences, The John Spoor Broome Library, and the Art Program for their generous support.