

California State University Channel Island, Broome Library

“Native Voices” Exhibition Program

Presents

The Dine/Navajo from Black Mesa Arizona

“Remembrance and Renewal: Navajo Resilience through Weaving Traditions”

Presented by the Institute for Research on Trauma and Resilience (IRTR)

Dialogue with Weavers of the Dine Nation

The Weavers:

Salina Begay

Glenna Begay

Rena Babbit-Lane

Mary Lane

Zena Lane

Kevin Lane

Lorena Blackwater

Louise Singer

Loom Weaving Workshop Open to All Throughout the Day

Exhibition Hall - Broome 1320

---

10:00 -10:15	Opening remarks. Welcome by President/Provost Speaker
10:15-10:25	The Honorable Roberto Rodríguez Hernández, Mexican Consulate, Oxnard California, “ Preserving Cultural Heritage ”
10:25-10:30	Dine/Navajo Black Mesa Arizona, Greetings (bilingual) Speakers
10:30-10:35	The Honorable Roberto Rodríguez Hernández from the Mexican Consulate will award cultural commendations
10:35-10:40	Steven Stratton, Broome Library Representative Speaker
10:40-10: 45	Ivana Mora, Founding President Institute for Research on Trauma and Resilience
10: 45-10:50	Denise Lugo, Art Program, Acknowledgement
	Outside Broome Library Plaza
11:00 -12:00	“Chumash Blessing” by Raudel Banuelos, Vice Tribal Chair of the Barbareño/Ventureño Band of Mission Indians Chumash
	Danza Tlaloc Ollin-Aztec , Veronica Valadez, CSUCI

12:00-12:30 Lunch

Workshop/Presentation Schedule

Exhibition Hall - Broome 1320

- 01:00 Student and Faculty Loom Weaving Project Workshop. Students get hands-on weaving experience and learn how weaving helps preserve Dine (Navajo) culture.
- 01:30 Mixtec Presentation, MICOP
- 02:00 Dialogue with Students led by Salina Begay, Dine Weaver
- 02:30 Ivana Mora, "Eugenics and Structural Racism in the US", Founding President Institute for Research on Trauma and Resilience
- 03:00 Lee Greer, "Genocide in the Americas", Secretary of Institute for Research on Trauma and Resilience
- 03:30 Andres Amaya, "Activism with the Dine/Navajo", American Indian Movement Activism Talk
- 04:00 The Weavers Speak, "Dialogue with Weavers of the Dine Nation", Salina Begay and Dine Elders speak about the Significance of Weaving to the Dine Nation and their experiences and struggles to continue to live on their ancestral land.
- 04:30 Q & A: Forum with artists, students, faculty, staff, and community.

SPECIAL THANKS TO:

Steven Stratton, Interim Dean of the James Spoor Broome Library, Janet Pinkley title and Laura Worden, title
Exhibition Coordinator, Broome Library.

Celina Lopez, Zacarias, Sr. Director, Community & Government Relations, Presidents Office
Pilar Pacheco, Managing Director of the Center for Community Engagement, Luke Mathus, Chair of Art Program, Dean of Arts and Science-----
Hilda J. Ocampo, Art Program, Academic Program Analyst